Indian Polish Association for the Development of Culture

The association was founded in Krakow in 2000 upon the initiative of Umesh Nautiyal, the IPCC President since the beginning. Every year, on the occasion of traditional Indian holidays - Saint Colors and the Festival of Lights - we organize festivals that bring the culture of India closer to the inhabitants of Krakow. Since the very beginning, our activities have been patronized by the J.E. Ambassador of India in Poland R.L. Narayan. The goal of the IPCC is to present various aspects of Indian culture, and in particular its most subtle classic form. The active members of the IPCC include both Poles fascinated with India and Indians who live in Poland permanently or study and work here temporarily.
