The mission of the local self-government is to integrate actions of inhabitants aiming at implementing the Kraków vision of development by introducing the city partnership management with exploiting the opportunities created by its metropolitan potential and European integration

HISTORY OF THE "OPEN KRAKÓW" PROGRAMME

Activities concerning the preparation of the draft resolution on "Open Kraków" programme were taken in 2012 by the Municipal Centre of Supporting Social Initiatives MOWIS, together with Association INTERKULTURALNI.PL.

In May 2012 the developed effect of the project – the document entitled "Draft Strategy of prevention and response to acts of racist and xenophobic nature in the city public space – a proposal for the local self-government of the City of Kraków (2012-2016)" was presented to Ms. Anna Okońska-Walkowicz, Vice President of the City of Kraków. The Draft Strategy was created in the participative process with officials of the Kraków Town Hall and the Voivodeship Office, representatives of the Prosecutor's Office, professional probation officers, the City Guard, the Police and representatives of non-governmental organizations supporting national and ethnic minorities.

Due to the actions taken by the Municipality of Kraków in terms of counteracting racist and xenophobic attitudes in the city space as well as taking into account the need of the Municipality's increasing involvement in equality activities, in April 2013, pursuant to the order of President of Kraków no. 551/2013 of 4 March 2013 on the establishment of Task Group for drawing up a draft resolution of the Kraków City Council concerning the issues of multiculturalism, counteracting discrimination, racism and xenophobia in Kraków the work commenced under the chairmanship of Ms. Magdalena Sroka, Vice President of the City of Kraków. The draft document was consulted with the Kraków Board for Public Benefit Activity and non-governmental organizations.

In May 2015 the draft resolution on adopting the "Programme of prevention and response to acts of racist and xenophobic nature in the Kraków public space" was re-analysed. Its provisions were amended and a new diagnosis was prepared. The document under the new title "Open Kraków" Programme once again was subject to consultations with non-governmental organizations.

On 14 September 2016 "Open Kraków" Programme was adopted by resolution of the Kraków City Council no. LII/964/16. The content of the resolution was published in the Public Information Bulletin of the City of Kraków under the address: https://www.bip.krakow.pl/?dok_id167&sub_dok_id=167&sub=uchwala&query=id%D21638%26typ%3Du

STATISTICS CONCERNING THE RESIDENCE OF FOREIGNERS IN KRAKÓW

In accordance with statistics of the Office for Foreigners, the number of people having a valid resident permit issued by the Governor of Małopolskie Voivodeship - as of March, 1 2017 - amounted to 27,314. Due to this fact, it may be assumed that about two thirds (about 18 thousand) live in Kraków. In accordance with the data as of July, 1 2016, the number of foreigners in Małopolska was 23,602, so about 15 thousand foreigners lived in Kraków. It is therefore clear that Kraków is a place which is increasingly often chosen by foreigners as the place to live.

According to data of the Department of Administrative Affairs of the Kraków Town Hall as of April 13, 2017, a total of 11,800 people were registered in Kraków, including:

- 1,987 people for permanent residence,
- 9,813 people for temporary stay.

Both the statistics presented by the Office for Foreigners and those provided by the Department of Administrative Affairs of the Kraków Town Hall clearly indicate that citizens of Ukraine constitute almost a half of foreigners living in Kraków. Citizens of Belarus, Russia or Spain are other significant national groups in the city.

ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MUNICIPALITY OF KRAKÓW TO IMPLEMENT THE "OPEN KRAKÓW" PROGRAMME

In 2016 the Municipality of Kraków took a series of actions aiming at creating the society open to multiculturalism. Some of them were implemented in the course of the draft resolution of the Kraków City Council being proceeded.

- from January to December 2016 the "Welcome Packager for Foreigners" was distributed. It was developed as part of an open competition by the Halina Nieć Legal Assistance Centre. The publication was prepared in English and Ukrainian on: obtaining particular benefits, principles of benefiting from health care services and education, course of action in the case of being a victim of a crime, obtaining a compensation in the case of motor damage and related to the working environment, principles of performing work and undertaking economic activity, rent, lease or lending for use of residential units from the Municipality resources as well as obtaining a driving licence and registration of a vehicle, among others; https://www.bip.krakow.pl/?dok_id=%2066323;
- since January 2016 within the framework of social prevention the City Guard has carried out over 220 lessons in 6th grades of primary schools and about 400 lessons in gymnasiums, post-gymnasium schools and other facilities on "Legal liability of minors". During these lessons provisions forbidding illegal inscriptions and pictures under the Code of Petty Offences, the Criminal Code and the Act on Monument Protection and Monument Care as well as legal consequences of such acts were discussed;
- since January 2016 the City Guard has been publishing on its website "The guide for owners of real estate damaged by scrawling or illegal announcements and posters";
- since January 2016 the City Guard has been taking actions for disclosure of acts of vandalism in the form of illegal and offensive inscriptions. Within the framework of actions 1722 inscriptions (1201 were removed) were disclosed, as a result of operational activities 52 perpetrators signing the buildings with scrawling were detected, including:
 - 46 perpetrators of petty offences (Article 63a of the Code of Petty Offences), 22 persons were instructed, 6 fines were imposed and 8 motions for penalty were submitted to the court,
 - 4 crime perpetrators (Article 108 of the Act on monument protection and care),
 - 2 juveniles signing buildings with scrawling.

Furthermore, within the framework of actions for combating illegal inscriptions 1722 pieces of advice were given to the owners and building administrators. Every time when illegal graffiti is detected, guards talk to the owner or building administrator and inform how to estimate losses, how to report a crime and how to and where claim damages;

Furthermore, the Municipal Police under the participation of the Kraków Police in the implementation of the programme of counteracting illegal graffiti carried out by President of the City of Kraków carried out a total of 180 intensified preventive actions targeted to counteracting illegal graffiti, i.e. damage to property often in the form of various kinds of inscriptions inciting to hatred on the basis of race, nationality and religion. The effects of these actions as well as regular patrol and operations service resulted in, inter alia, 13 perpetrators of such type of damage to property caught in the act. In the course of 170 proceedings 11 perpetrators of petty offences under Article 63a of the Code of Petty Offences were identified. During 37 proceedings related to crimes under Article 288§1 of the Criminal Code 27 perpetrators were identified, of whom in the case of 10 perpetrators proceedings were finished by bringing an indictment to the court. 14 juvenile perpetrators of 16 punishable acts were detained.

- since January 2016 the Safety and Crisis Management Department of the Kraków Town Hall within the framework of the Referendum Outcome Implementation Task Team has prepared recommendations and guidelines comprising issues of the further development of monitoring system of public space in Kraków. This task is implemented on the basis of documentation “The concept of expansion of the video monitoring system in Kraków”.
- since January 2016 the proceedings of 2016 carried out by the Municipal Police related to the so-called hate crimes, i.e. acts caused by racism and xenophobia have been monitored. Statistics of the carried out proceedings are the following:
 - number of proceedings instigated under Article 256§1 of the Criminal Code – 14, the number of crimes ascertained under this Article – 15 (including 9 crimes committed via Internet),
 - number of proceedings instigated under Article 257 of the Criminal Code – 14, number of crimes ascertained – 8 (including 3 crimes committed via Internet),
 - number of proceedings instigated under Article 11991 of the Criminal Code – 6, number of crimes ascertained – 3.

Furthermore, within the framework of actions aiming at combating the use of hate speech, the Police carried out educational actions at schools “Cyberthreats, Prevention, Response”. The project was targeted to pupils of primary schools, gymnasium, post-gymnasium schools, their parents and teaching staff. Policemen of Teams on Juveniles and Social Pathology discussed the so-called “harmful, illegal threats” which one can encounter on the Internet, including the content in the form of websites, blogs and comments on Internet forums. They incite to hatred and in this way violate the provision of Article 256 or 257 of the Criminal Code. In 2016 there were 587 such meetings for 15 537 pupils, 14 for 792 parents and 533 for 963 for guidance counsellors.

- on 18 May 2016, upon the request of the American Jewish Committee (AJC), Professor Jacek Majchrowski, President of the City of Kraków, signed the declaration “Mayors United Against Anti-Semitism”.
- in June 2016 the Kraków Intercultural Forum City-Business-People was established. The Forum organizers included: Think Tank Diversity Hub and the Kraków Town Hall. It aims at initiating and next developing the space for dialogue and consultation between the Kraków Town Hall (and municipal units) and representatives of business, science, non-governmental organizations and expats themselves in Kraków, <https://diversityhub.pl/event/krakowskie-forum-interkulturowe-miasto-biznes-ludzie/>.
- June/September 2016 – cultural events: the Jewish Festival Culture, the 5th Jubilee International Days of Roma Culture in Kraków were co-financed. The above-mentioned cyclical undertakings received subsidies as part of an open competition for implementation of public tasks of the Municipality of Kraków in the field of culture, art, protection of cultural goods and national heritage in Kraków 2016. Furthermore, the activity of the Decius Villa Association “Forum of Culture Dialogue”, the Foundation Judaica – “Heritage, Remembrance, Civil Community” as well as the Society of Friends of History and Monuments in Kraków “Kraków in the history of nation” were co-financed. Within the framework of the above-mentioned activities the policy of openness to multiculturalism and integration as well as cooperation with foreigners (e.g. ICORN) is implemented;

- from April to December 2016 within the framework of the care about the quality and aesthetics of the public space “Scrawling Busters” and “You love your country so don’t scrawl on it” were organised in the cooperation with the Cultural Centre Polish Song Library. These events combined covering scrawling with paint with promotion of the Polish song Within the above-mentioned events which were in the form of neighbouring picnics, the Polish Song Library, in cooperation with Scrawling Busters and Councils of Kraków districts (VI and X), prepared the following events:
 - April 2016 - Picnic in Rajska Szkoła with the music of Kraków Street Band;
 - April 2016 - Scrawling Busters – the action of covering scrawling with paint at the square in Tarnów with Polish music – establishing cooperation with Tarnów;

ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MUNICIPALITY OF KRAKÓW FOR FOREIGNERS PURSUANT TO SOCIAL WELFARE ACT

The Municipal Social Welfare Centre provides foreigners with social assistance in accordance with the principles set out in the Social Welfare Act of 12 March 2013 (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2016, item 930 as amended). Pursuant to Article 5 and Article 5a, unless international agreements provide otherwise, a foreigner who resides or stays within the territory of the Republic of Poland is entitled to receive social benefits:

- on the basis of permanent residence permit,
- on the basis of a long-term resident's EU residence permit,
- on the basis of temporary residence permit granted to a foreigner for the purpose of family reunification if he/she stays on the territory of the Republic of Poland or if he/she stays on this territory in order to reunite with his/her family and is a member of the family of a foreigner residing on the territory of the Republic of Poland in relation to having been granted a refugee status;
- on the basis of temporary residence permit granted to a foreigner for the purpose of family reunification if he/she stays on the territory of the Republic of Poland or if he/she stays on this territory in order to reunite with his/her family and is a member of the family of a foreigner residing on the territory of the Republic of Poland in relation to having been granted a subsidiary protection;
- on the basis of temporary residence permit granted due to other circumstances if he/she possesses a long-term resident's EU residence permit issued by another member state of the European Union and:
 - intends to work or conduct economic activity within the territory of the Republic of Poland pursuant to applicable regulations on this subject within this territory or intends to take up or continue studies or occupational trainings on the territory of the Republic of Poland or
 - confirms other circumstances justifying his/her residence on the territory of the Republic of Poland in relation to having been granted a refugee status or a subsidiary protection.

Foreigners fulfilling the above-mentioned criteria may benefit from social assistance on equal basis with citizens of the Republic of Poland.

Furthermore, foreigners who have a place of residence and stay on the territory of the Republic of Poland:

- in relation to having been granted a residence permit for humanitarian reasons or a permit for a tolerated stay – may obtain the assistance only in the form of shelter, meal, necessary clothing and a purpose-specific benefit;
- on the basis of a certificate referred to in Article 170 of the Act of 12 December 2013 on foreigners (a certificate confirming the presumption that a person is a victim of human trafficking) or on the basis of a permit referred to in Article 176 of the Act on foreigners (temporary residence permit for human trafficking victims) – they are entitled to benefits in the form of crisis intervention, shelter, meal, necessary clothing and a purpose-specific benefit.

Additionally, foreigners who obtained a refugee status or a subsidiary protection or stay on the territory of the Republic of Poland on the basis of temporary residence permit for the purpose of family reunification if a member of the family has been granted a refugee status or a subsidiary protection may benefit from extensive assistance aiming at supporting the process of their integration.

Pursuant to Article 92 of the Social Welfare Act, the assistance for a foreigner in the form of supporting the integration process is being granted for a period not exceeding 12 months. It includes:

- 1) cash benefits amounting from PLN 606 to PLN 1335 per month per person intended for:
 - a. maintenance, in particular, expenses for food, clothing, footwear, personal hygiene and housing fees,
 - b. expenses connected with learning of the Polish language;
- 2) payment of health insurance contribution stipulated in the Act of 27 August 2004 on publicly funded health care benefits;
- 3) social work;
- 4) special counselling, including legal, psychological and family counselling;
- 5) provision of information and support in contacts with other institutions, in particular labour market institutions, local community and non-governmental organizations;
- 6) other measures supporting the integration process of a foreigner.

The assistance for foreigners is implemented under an individual integration programme. It supports the integration processes and it is expected to allow foreigners to adjust to a new environment and living conditions. The individual integration programme as well as the social contract contains mutual obligations of the parties, the only change is that in the case of the individual integration programme these obligations are statutory and the programme only clarifies and adjusts them to a foreigner's individual situation. The integration programme is agreed between the Municipal Social Welfare Centre in Kraków and a foreigner. It determines the amount, the scope of the assistance form depending on an individual life circumstances and provisions set out in Article 93 of the Social Welfare Act.

In particular, the Municipal Social Welfare Centre in Kraków is obliged to provide a foreigner with the information, support him in contacts with the environment, provide assistance in organizing accommodation and perform social work. As far as a foreigner is concerned, he is obliged to register in the place of residence, register in the district employment agency and actively look for a job, participate in Polish language courses (if necessary), regularly meet with a programme manager and observe the obligations adopted in the programme.

The social welfare centre cooperates with a competent voivode in the assistance for foreigner in relation to a place of residence, including where possible the foreigner's choice of a place of residence. The foreigner's progress in the integration process under the programme which he/she implements is monitored by a social worker at least once every three months, counting from the day of the commencement of the programme. The progress in integration is evaluated in terms of the level and effectiveness of the integration process, in particular in the following areas, according to the integration objectives stipulated in the programme:

- 1) language education, including the level of acquiring basic vocabulary of the Polish language enabling communication;
- 2) professional functioning in terms of progress in looking for a job and other forms of professional activity allowing a foreigner to become economically independent;
- 3) social functioning, in particular in terms of making contacts with the local environment and the level of participation in social, cultural and public life.

In order to determine the foreigner's progress in the integration process, the social worker applies methods of observation, direct talk with the foreigner and members of his family. Furthermore, he/she may consult other institutions and organizations participating in the integration process.

The social assistance for foreigners staying within the territory of the Republic of Poland is provided by various government and local self-government administration bodies. Competent bodies and the scope of assistance which they provide depend on the status of the foreigner's residence within the territory of the Republic of Poland.

In 2016 the Municipal Social Welfare Centre in Kraków provided foreigners with assistance by the following categories:

- purpose-specific benefit – 128 people in 42 families,
- individual integration programme – 15 people in 5 families from: one family from Yemen, two families from Syria and two families from Ukraine,

Furthermore, the assistance was provided in the following forms:

- cash benefit intended to cover expenses for food, clothing, footwear, personal hygiene and housing fees and to cover expenses of learning of the Polish language – 15 people,
- payment of health insurance contribution – 3 people (from 3 families: one from Yemen, two from Syria),
- assistance in the form of social work – 15 people,
- provision of information and support in contacts with other institutions, in particular labour market institutions, local community and non-governmental organizations – 15 people.

ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE MUNICIPALITY OF KRAKÓW FOR FOREIGNERS PURSUANT TO ACT ON THE EDUCATION SYSTEM

Integration of pupils from the immigrant families consists in taking all measures aiming at eliminating difficulties experienced by pupils from abroad. It concerns, inter alia: language barrier, fear of cultural distinctiveness. Furthermore, such actions are expected to counteract their social exclusion, give them a good start on the labour market in relation to acquired skills and motivate them to actively participate in social life.

Conditions for starting education by children and youth who are not Polish citizens are stipulated in the Act of 7 September 1991 on education system (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2016, item 1943, as amended) and in the regulation of the Minister of National Education of 9 September 2016 on the education of people who are not Polish citizens and non-Polish nationals who have attended schools within school education systems in other countries (Journal of Laws of 2016, item 1453). Pursuant to Article 94a (1) and (1a) of the Act of 7 September 1991 on education systems people who are not Polish citizens benefit from education and care in all types of public nursery school or other public preschool education settings as well as non-public nursery school referred to in Article 90 (1b) of the above-mentioned Act and non-public other forms of preschool education settings referred to in Article 90 (1c) of the above-mentioned Act and subject to schooling obligation benefit from education and care in public primary education, gymnasiums, public arts schools and facilities, including artistic facilities, on the conditions that apply to Polish citizens. People who are not the citizens of Poland subject to education obligation benefit from education and care in public post-gymnasium schools until reaching the age of 18 or completing a post-gymnasium school on conditions that apply to Polish citizens.

Furthermore, pursuant to §18 of the regulation of the Minister of National Education of 9 September 2016 on the education of people who are not Polish citizens and non-Polish nationals who have attended schools within school education systems in other countries, the body managing the school organises additional free-of-charge Polish language lessons for students from abroad subject to schooling or education obligation who do not know the Polish language or whose knowledge of the Polish language is insufficient to obtain education. Additional Polish lessons are conducted on individual basis or in a group in the number allowing for becoming sufficiently fluent in the Polish language to the extent enabling to attend compulsory mainstream classes but it may not be lower than 2 hours a week.

Pursuant to §19 of the above-mentioned regulation for students in the case of whom the teacher conducting classes states the necessity of supplementing curriculum differences from this subject, the body managing the school organizes additional compensatory classes in the form of additional classes from this subject. Additional compensatory classes are conducted on an individual basis or in groups in the number of one hour a week.

The weekly timetable of additional classes referred to in §18 and §19 of the above-mentioned resolution is established by the headmaster of the school in which these lessons are conducted, in agreement with the body managing the school. The total number of the above-mentioned lessons cannot exceed 5 hours a week per one student.

On the basis of the data from the Educational Information System – as of 30 September 2016 – 456 students who are not Polish citizens benefit from additional Polish language lessons in the Kraków local self-government schools in the school year 2016/2017.

Furthermore, public nursery schools, schools and facilities provide students and their parents with the psychological and pedagogical assistance. This assistance is organized, inter alia, pursuant to the regulation of the Minister of National Education of 30 April 2013 on principles of organization and provision of psychological and pedagogical assistance in public nursery schools, schools and facilities (Journal of Laws of 2013, item 532). In accordance with §3 (1) (11) of the above-mentioned regulation, the student is provided with the psychological and pedagogical assistance in public nursery schools, schools and facilities and this assistance consists in recognizing and satisfying the student's developmental and educational needs and recognizing the student's individual physical and mental opportunities which result from, inter alia, adaptation difficulties related to cultural differences or the change of educational environment, including those related to his previous education abroad.

In 1 September 2014 in the Integration Secondary School Complex no. 1 in Kraków, al. Kijowska 3 the interschool team of Ukrainian language learning as a language of a national minority was established in order to maintain the sense of national identity – pursuant to the regulation of the Ministry of National Education of 14 November 2007 on conditions and the manner of executing tasks enabling students to belong to national and ethnic minorities and communities using regional language to maintain the sense of national, ethnic and language identity by nursery schools, schools and public facilities (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2014, item 263). In the above-mentioned interschool team in accordance with applicable regulations the education is available to children and youth who, pursuant to the Act of 6 January 2005 on national and ethnic minorities (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2017, item 823), belong to Ukrainian national minority, i.e. they possess Polish citizenship (pursuant to the Act, a national minority is a group of Polish citizens who fulfils cumulative conditions set out in the Act).
